

Gora Shishka. Area 3. Panel 1

Description

The panel represents numerous linear zoomorphic figures made with pixel pecking. This group of images belongs to Karasukskaya culture. Also the panel represents images of anthropomorphic figures, horsemen, silhouette zoomorphic figures. Some of them belong to Tagarskaya culture; some of them are probably made in the Middle Ages.

Technical description

The panel is located on rocky outcrops on the western slope of the mountain. It is exposed to the west. The sizes are 4.8x1.5 m. The panel is damaged by cracking and peeling of the rock crust. The left side of the panel is badly damaged by lichens.

Culture

Tagar culture, Karasyk culture

Epoch

Bronze age, Early iron age, Middle Ages

Method

Retouch

Description authors: V. Konokhov